SOUTHWEST FLORIDA COUNCIL

Recruiting Youth

Often in Scouting when you hear the word recruitment you think of just Cub Scout recruitment in the fall. Now this is our biggest organized recruiting event that we have as a council but there are many more steps to ensure success amongst your Cub Scout Pack and Scouts, BSA Troop. Recruitment is a year-round activity. Below are some key dates/events that will help grow your unit.

School Night for Scouting

"Sign-up" nights have been a keystone for recruiting for years, and for good reason: They work! Sign-up nights give parents and youth an opportunity to get to know Scouting at a personal level, face-to-face. Questions are answered, interest is built, and parents see how Scouting is for families like theirs, no matter what that family may look like. What's more, families often enroll their children right there on the spot. It's a win-win situation.

Webelos To Scout Transition Timeline

August: Troops should get names, address & phone numbers of 2nd year Webelos.

September: Troops should contact Webelos Dens and introduce their Troop. • Troops should include Webelos on their Troop newsletter mailing list.

October: Webelos attend a campout with a Scouts, BSA Troop(s).

November: Scouts, BSA Troops should be attending Webelos meetings and talking to the youth about how a Scouts, BSA Troop functions.

December: Webelos should be attending a Scouts, BSA Troop meeting.

January: Webelos and Scouts, BSA Troops should be getting applications filled out and finalizing plans with youth crossing over into their Troop.

February: Troops should be participating in a "bridging over" ceremony at the Blue and Gold banquet.

March: Troops should have an activity planned so new Scouts get involved and comfortable in their new Scouts, BSA Troop.

April: Scouts, BSA Troops should be conducting a summer camp orientation.

Summer: Ensure all new Scouts attend summer camp with the Troop.

SCOUTING SAFELY

The BSA's Commitment to Safety

We want you to know that the safety of our youth, volunteers, staff, and employees is an important part of the Scouting experience. Youth develop traits of citizenship, character, fitness, and leadership during age-appropriate events when challenged to move beyond their normal comfort level and discover their abilities. This is appropriate when risks are identified and mitigated.

Youth Protection

True youth protection can be achieved only through the focused commitment of everyone in Scouting.

Scouting America places the greatest importance on creating the most secure environment possible for our youth members. To maintain such an environment, the BSA developed numerous procedural and leadership selection policies. Youth Protection training is required for all registered volunteers. Youth Protection training must be taken every twoyears.

Unit Accounts

As a service to its units and customers, the Southwest Florida Council accepts advanced deposits to be held by the council in a custodial account in the name of the unit. The unit account can be used for supplies, registration, Scout Life, camp registration fees, or activity fees. Funds from the unit account can be used in the Southwest Florida Scout Shop.

If you wish to use the unit account service, you may simply bring a check, cash, or credit card (2% processing fee will apply) in the amount you want to have deposited into the account and a list of names of the people in your unit you wish to have able to use the money in the account. Only those listed will be able to use the account. Only the Committee Chairman, Chartered Organization Representative, Cubmaster, Scoutmaster, or Post Advisor may change the names on the account, and this should be done in writing. Additional information about unit accounts is also available on the Unit Budget Planning page.

Unit Money Earning Application

The unit leadership in chartered organizations may participate in approved fundraising projects, provided BSA Rules and Regulations and guidelines are followed. This will help ensure the quality of the product or service and the safety of all participants and avoid the commercialization of the BSA. Every unit planning to conduct a fundraising activity (outside of the pre-approved popcorn & camp card sales) activity must submit a Unit Money-Earning Application (Form No. 34427) for approval by the chartered organization and the local council prior to holding the activity.

Family Friends of Scouting

Funding for the Scouting Program, local events, camp facilities, trainings, and more comes in large part from our annual fundraising campaign called Friends of Scouting (F.O.S). This campaign is the one opportunity each year for communities, businesses, and families to support the Scouting movement to help ensure the delivery of a quality Scouting program to over 10,000 youth.

Your annual membership fee goes directly to the National Council, so all the local funds raised are what support our local Scout council each year. These dollars are invested into our local programs to provide new equipment, camp facilities, planning of large events, supplies, and resources for units to use throughout the year. Friends of Scouting makes up approximately 44% of the operating budget each year. All gifts stay local and help to support local Scouting programs and facilities. On average, it takes about $250 per Scout to provide the Scouting program for one year.

The family portion of the campaign is when families within Scouting have an opportunity to help support the program that their son or daughter is a part of by making a financial contribution. Together, we make a huge impact! That support goes a long way in helping us deliver the program we set out to give to the youth in our communities. We ask that each unit help do their part by scheduling a family FOS presentation. At this short 5-8-minute presentation, a local volunteer will visit your unit, help to share the impact of Scouting here in Southwest Florida Council, and ask if families will consider supporting the cause. Presentations are typically made during the months of January, February, and March.

Youth Protection Reporting Procedures for Volunteers

There are two types of Youth Protection–related reporting procedures all volunteers must follow: When you witness or suspect any child has been abused or neglected, follow the below steps to report child abuse:

1. Ensure the child is in a safe environment. 2. In cases of child abuse or medical emergencies, call 911 immediately. In addition, if the suspected abuse is in the Scout's home or family, you are required to contact the local child abuse hot line.

3. Notify the Scout Executive.

When you witness a violation of the BSA's Youth Protection policies, including those described within Scouting's Barriers to Abuse, you must notify your local council Scout Executive so appropriate action can be taken for the safety of our Scouts.

The Guide to Safe Scouting is an overview of Scouting policies and procedures gleaned from a variety of sources. Unit leaders are expected to review the additional reference material cited prior to conducting such activities.

Advancement

Advancement and recognition are a fundamental tradition of the Scouting program. As one of the methods that delivers the Aims of Scouting, advancement teaches Scouts self-confidence, responsibility, goal setting, and achievement. The path to Eagle is a journey, and one that takes both dedication and planning. Luckily, there are lots of resources available to help guide the youth and the unit along the way.

is the top priority of every unit and financial resources help to accomplish this. It is vital that each unit plans expenses for the year and what fundraising is needed in order to carry out the program.

Basic Expenses

$85/year per youth, $65/year per adult $100/yearperunit Scout Life magazine subscription $15/year Activities Advancements Reserve Fund

Troop/Den/Pack Dues

How much will each meeting and extra activity cost? Summer, Winter, Day, and Resident Camps Does the unit pay for part or all of these activities, or does the individual youth? What type of awards and approximately how many does the unit plan to hand out? Does the unit charge a due to help cover costs? Does the unit have adequate funds in reserve for unforeseen expenses?

The Southwest Florida Council provides youth with fundraising opport unities to help pay for the unit's expenses along with awards, camps, registration fees, Scouts' life, and much more. Teaching our youth that they can earn their own way is just one of the many values that Scouting teaches our Youth. Last year through the popcorn sale and spring product sales local units put hundreds of thousands into unit accounts to help provide quality program.

Unit Budgeting

The activities a pack, troop, or crew can participate in depends on both what funds are available as well as the plan for how those funds are used. It is important to plan out your unit's budget in advance to match the plans of your unit's program calendar. There are several components that go into managing a unit's account and budget throughout the year.

Budget Planning is a large part of the unit's program planning process. Providing a quality program to our Scouts

Sea Scout Program Resources

There are many reasons why young adults should be interested in Sea Scouts. Being on the water and learning to operate a boat powered by wind is a traditional rewarding experience. For thousands of years, sailing and water transportation was the most important methods of travel for trade, business, culture, war, and practically every other major advancement. Sea Scouting is a co-educational program for young adults between the ages of 14 and 21. Young adults that are 13 years old and have completed the eighth grade are also eligible to join.

Sea Scouting is organized to promote better citizenship and to improve members' boating skills and knowledge through instruction and practice in water safety, boating skills, outdoor, social, and service experiences, and knowledge of our maritime heritage. Sea Scouting happens on, in and under the water. We are also involved in recreational boating, marine science, and/or maritime careers. Sea Scouting offers the challenge and excitement of the sea including sailing, navigation, safety, communications, mechanics, weather, piloting, and much more. Sea Scouting is an adventure on both land and sea.

Prior sailing experience is not necessary or required. Beginners are welcome! Feel free to navigate the Southwest Florida or National sites to learn more about what Sea Scouts do!

Recruiting Adults

Prospect 2)

Along with recruiting youth we often times don't put enough emphasis into recruiting adult volunteers year-round and having a succession plan within your unit. In the following pages there is information to help identify and recruitadultvolunteersinto your Pack orTroop.

The most common complaint and struggle with Scout Units is not being able to find enough adult volunteers to help. Below please find some helpful pointers in assuring that your unit's health will remain strong for many years tocome.

Have every parent fill out the Parent Talent Survey/Troop Survey Have an assistant leader for each key position within the unit: Cubmaster, Den Leaders, Scoutmaster, Patrol Advisors & Committee Chairs Make sure Key Leadership positions are filled before summer starts

Ask every parent to volunteer for a role, even if it is just a small one, such as a parent helper for an event. Involving each family will bring more buy in to the program and setting this expectation will ensure great parent involvement for years to come.

VENTURING & SEA SCOUT ZONE

Venturing Program Resources

Let's talk about one of the key elements of all successful crews and an indicator of a potentially successful year. Of course, that would be the crew's annual program plan and planning conference. Research conducted by Eli Lilly in Indianapolis, Indiana, showed that a common element of strong units is they all have a good annual program planned a year in advance that is then shared with all families in the form of a calendar. The important result of a shared annual program calendar is that your crew will attract more families and Venturers will stay involved longer.

Two other key elements of successful units identified in that study were training and having just the right leader to start with. Here's how a crew program planning process works. A month or two before the scheduled face-to-face conference, crew Advisor, committee chair, and crew leader meet to begin preparation. If you had a magic wand, would you use it to make the Scouting program better and more fun for youth, so they stayed in Scouting longer, so it had a larger impact on their lives? What if the same magic wand made leadership roles easier, more rewarding, and led to better retention among adult leaders? Would using that magic wand be a top priority? Well, such a magic wand does exist—in the form of the learning programs for leaders in the Boy Scouts of America.

PLANNING YOUR YEAR

A good program for your Scouts takes planning and preparation. This summer, your unit committee (youth leaders should be involved for Troops, Crews and Posts) should plan out its program for the next year. Going through this process will help you excite your families, retain your Scouts and Explorers and it will help you recruit more leaders.

While this is a simple process, it will probably take 2-or-3 meetings to complete. Here are the basic steps:

- Membership How many of your Scouts/Explorers will be returning in the fall and how many more do you expect to pick up at a Sign-Up Night, Open House or through other efforts?
- Volunteers Who is confirmed and where do you have holes to fill? Leverage existing families and their networks to fill Lion and Tiger Den Leader roles over the summer.
- Program Brainstorm a big wish list of all the activities you'd like to do over the next 12-18 months.
- Calendar Create a calendar and fill in the items you know will be happening (Camporee, Cub Family Campout, Pinewood Derby, Courts of Honor, Blue & Gold, trips, etc.) Then take your top ideas from the Brainstorming session and fill those items in to finish up your calendar.
- Budget Families want to know how the money for your unit is brought in and spent.
 Keep them in the loop. Look at the cost of all your activities for the year and other Unit expenses (such as awards, camperships, equipment and registration) and plot them out.
 Know what it will cost for a youth to have a full year of program in your Unit.
- Income How are you going to pay for all of this fun? Most should come from the Popcorn and Camp Card sale. Popcorn and Camp Card sales are easy options because they are branded to support Scouting.
- Educate Let your parents know the plans for the next year. Show them the calendar and the budget. Show them how money raised can help their youth earn their Ideal Year of Scouting.

National Outdoor Awards Program

Do you enjoy camping under the stars, rafting on a whitewater river, or hitting the trail afoot, on a bike, or even on a horse? If so, the National Outdoor Awards are for you. There is nothing virtual about these awards you can earn them only by demonstrating knowledge and experience in the outdoors.

So, if you are a member of Scouts BSA, Varsity Scout, Sea Scout, or Venture Scout, and think you are tough and disciplined enough to hike or ride the miles, camp the nights, run the rivers or lakes, or do the work to conserve the land, then read on and see if the National Outdoor badges or possibly the National Medal for Outdoor Achievement could be for you! Scan the QR Code.

Annual Troop Program Planning Conference

This is the step where your troop program comes alive. The success of this conference began when you, the Scoutmaster, prepared your senior patrol leader. Be alert throughout the conference to help the senior patrol leader. Don't wait for him to fail but be careful not to take over for him. Careful, nonintrusive coaching will help your senior patrol leader build confidence. Share your leadership with them.

Who Attends the Conference?

The troop's annual planning conference is attended by the Scoutmaster, assistant Scoutmaster for the new-Scout patrol, assistant Scoutmaster for the Venture patrol, senior patrol leader, assistant senior patrol leader, patrol leaders, and troop guide.

Physical Arrangements

Careful planning should ensure that this planning conference is a first-class experience for your youth leaders. Pick a location that would be special to your Scouts, possibly one offering opportunities for other activities, such as swimming, boating, etc. You can make it a weekend experience, although the conference is easily completed in a day.

Whichever you do, don't involve the youth leaders in a lot of housekeeping chores that distract them from the primary purpose of planning the troop program. Consider using other troop adults to cook and clean up; let your patrol leaders' council concentrate on the task at hand. Make sure the facilities are suited for a conference. Is ventilation good? Is there sufficient lighting? Are the chairs comfortable? Are there tables to work on? Is there a way to hang calendars on the wall?

Setting up the conference facility should have been previously assigned to members of the patrol leader's council. When directing a session, your senior patrol leader should be aware that it's easy to get sidetracked. If the group starts to drift away from the agenda, a gentle nudge from you may be in order to put them back on course.

But Good Turns are often small, thoughtful acts — helping a child cross a busy street, going to the store for an elderly neighbor, cutting back brush that is blocking a sign, doing something special for a brother or sister, or welcoming a new student to your school. Anyone can get involved in a Good Turn.
